A Season on the Road! The Rhino’s “Movin’ On” season. Our 2009-10 Season will take you on a world tour, all in San Francisco! From Jackson Square to Potrero Hill we’ll show you new plays in new theatres for an exciting new experience. Hop on board for a season on the road!

Our season begins with the return of the holiday classic A Christmas Memory by Truman Capote, adapted and directed by Word-for-Word’s Joanne Winter at Theatre Artaud. We continue with our holiday tradition The Marga Gomez New Year’s Spectacular. This year Marga shares the limelight with three hot new queer stand-ups David Hawkins, Ben Lerman and Natasha Muse. Next up, it’s the San Francisco professional premiere of Rent creator Jonathan Larsen’s musical Tick, Tick... Boom! presented in February at the Eureka Theatre. A very exciting April will be spent in residency at Mama Calizo’s Voice Factory where we’ll present new works as The Mama Rhino New Works Festival and finally we round out the season back at the Eureka on May 25th for our Rhino Benefit Extravaganza featuring the very best in SF’s LGBT talent.

Theatre Rhinoceros (John Fisher, Executive Director), America’s longest running professional LGBT theatre, develops and produces works of theatre that enlighten, enrich, and explore both the ordinary and extraordinary aspects of our queer community.
