WE'RE THIRTY-TWO AND GOING STRONG!

December 10, 2009

Dear Theatre Rhinoceros Supporter:

We're thirty-two and going strong thanks to your support. This year we've moved out of the Mission and have embarked on a theatrical journey across San Francisco. As the longest running and only GLAAD Award winning gay and lesbian theatre in the nation, we'd like to celebrate by raising thirty-two thousand dollars this winter to celebrate thirty-two fabulous years.

2009 has been an exciting year so far. We presented the runaway hit musical Falsettos (in Hector Correa's gorgeous production), the West Coast premiere of Daniel MacIvor's bears vs. lesbians comedy A Beautiful View, my own disquisition on Same-Sex Marriage A Necessary Evil and the much extended run of our smash collaboration with Word-for-Word Three on a Party. Next week our new season kicks off with another Word-for-Word collaboration Truman Capote's A Christmas Memory at Theatre Artaud. This holiday treat will be followed closely by the ever-hilarious Marga Gomez at the Victoria for New Year's Eve and then the Bay Area premiere of another hit musical, tick, tick...BOOM! (by Rent creator Jonathan Larsen) at the Eureka Theatre in February. Wherever we perform we continue our dedication to quality, professional theatre on gay and lesbian themes with an emphasis always on entertainment.

All Theatre Rhinoceros donors are invited to special open rehearsals of our shows and donors of $1,000.00 or more will be recognized as "Honorary Producers" of a show of their choice. All donations are tax deductible and are acknowledged in our programs, unless otherwise requested. Please contact me directly for further donor benefits.

With warmest holiday wishes,

John Fisher
Executive Director
