The Rhino New Year's Eve Spectacular returns with a one-performance-only special presentation of the runaway hit musical Are We Almost There? This show has not been performed in SF in six years and this presentation will be your one chance only to catch it with some of the original cast in this unique Holiday revival. Are We Almost There? originally played three years at the Shelton Theatre. All proceeds go to Theatre Rhinoceros. Why not save some money and watch someone else do the travelling? It's fun!

Morris Bobrow (Composer, Lyricist, Director) has become a San Francisco legend with his hysterical and topical musicals Party of One, And What, Give Up Show Business?, Are We

Almost There?, Shopping, Party of Two and Foodies (currently in its third year at the Shelton Theatre.)

Theatre Rhinoceros, America's longest running professional queer theatre, develops and produces works of theatre that enlighten, enrich, and explore both the ordinary and extraordinary aspects of our queer community.
