Theatre Rhinoceros invites you to

SHOWTUNE SING-ALONG FUNDRAISER

A Benefit for Theatre Rhinoceros

November 18, 2025 @ 6:30pm

November 7, 2025, San Francisco - Come to Theatre Rhinoceros Tuesday, 11/18 at 6:30 PM to a showtune song-along: enjoy food, drink, and all your favorite Broadway showtunes as you support Theatre Rhinoceros. Tickets are free but reservations and donations are encouraged. There will be a raffle and auction. Help celebrate and support the longest-running and most fun LGBTQ+ theatre anywhere! Armando Fox (Bay Area Critics Circle Award Winner for The Rhino's Cabaret) is our piano accompanist/maestro. If you love to sing along to Broadway, this is your night!

Theatre Rhinoceros was founded in 1977 and remains the longest running LGBTQ+ theatre in the nation. We develop and produce works of theatre that enlighten, enrich, and explore both the ordinary and the extraordinary aspects of our queer community. Our emphasis is on new works, works about under-represented members of the larger queer community, and revivals of lesser-known queer classics.

Special event producers for this season are John-Thomas Hanson, Anna Mimran, Amy and Derek Morgenstern, and Henry Rosenthal.

The Artists

ARMANDO FOX (Music Director, Piano/) is a classically trained (since age 5) Cuban-American pianist who completed pre-conservatory training at the Mannes College of Music, New York, now part of The New School. He studied piano performance with concert pianist and educator Michael Boriskin and others as well as music theory, ear training, ensemble performance, choir, arranging... the whole enchilada. He grew up in New York City and loves musicals; he's Music Directed about thirty of them, including several original orchestrations or reductions for both classic and new works. He was recently awarded the Bay Area Critics' Circle Award for Best Musical Direction for Theatre Rhinoceros's 2024 production of Cabaret.

Theatre Rhinoceros was founded in 1977, and is the longest running LGBTQ+ theatre in the nation. We develop and produce works of theatre that enlighten, enrich, and explore both the ordinary and the extraordinary aspects of our queer community. Our emphasis is on new works, works about under-represented members of the larger queer community, and revivals of lesser known queer classics. Over the years Theatre Rhinoceros has received many awards of recognition including: Theatre Rhinoceros Day in the City Proclamation from Mayor Gavin Newsom, State Assembly Certificate of Recognition from Senator Mark Leno, recognitions from Congressperson Nancy Pelosi and Assembly Persons Tom Ammiano and Carole Migden, numerous Cable Car, BATCC and TBA Awards and Nominations, and the GLAAD Media Award for Best LGBT Theatre.
