

THEATRE RHINOCEROS PRESENTS

PERICLES

By William Shakespeare

Directed by John Fisher

May 26-27, 2023

YERBA BUENA GARDENS

WHAT: Theatre Rhinoceros presents Shakespeare's Pericles, textually queered and performed outdoors on the beautiful grounds of Yerba Buena Gardens, per Theatre Rhinoceros tradition. In one of Shakespeare's most misunderstood comedies, Pericles guesses a dreadful secret of Antiochus and must flee his assassins. A desperate adventure of love, lust, and death ensues – an adventure that will take Pericles, his wife, and his daughter to the corners of the earth and nether reaches of self-discovery, remorse, and forgiveness. Shakespeare's obscure romance is directed by Theatre Rhinoceros' Executive Artistic Director John Fisher as part of the Yerba Buena Gardens Festival. The performance begins at the Great Waterfall at the MLK Fountain and travels all over the gardens.

WHEN: May 26 at 6 PM
May 27 at 1 PM

WHERE: Yerba Buena Gardens, 750 Howard St, San Francisco, CA 94103

TICKETS: Attendance is FREE. For more information, the public may visit therhino.org.

PRESS: Contact John Fisher
jofish94117@yahoo.com

Hi-res Digital Images will be Available for Download at: <http://therhino.org/press-room>